

COTTONWOOD HEIGHTS POLICE DEPARTMENT

Press Release

Motorcycle Safety & Bike Festival Community Event

Cottonwood Heights Police is hosting an event to promote public safety and a healthy, active community. Try out a Canyon Bike Festival to put some spring in your wheels for the fine weather ahead! Bikes of all kinds are invited, autos too. Find the Festival on Saturday, May 2, 2015 from 10 am until 2 pm at the Big Cottonwood Canyon Park and Ride, located East of Wasatch Boulevard at 3931 East Big cottonwood Canyon Road in Cottonwood Heights.

There will be a dozen late model motorcycles and bicycles on display from bike shops in the area. Health department officials and bike experts will provide free bike and tire inspections, and free sound checks. Get your bike decibel level measured without a ticket. Meet fellow bike enthusiasts to check out what's working for them and a free raffle for prizes.

Some of the following Organizations and Sponsors for this event include: Utah Sport Bike Association, Honda Suzuki of Salt Lake, Moto Station, Trackstar Motorcycle, Adrenaline Moto, Harley Davidson, Harrison Eurosports, Salt Lake County Health Department, Utah Highway Patrol, Cottonwood Cyclery, Big Cottonwood community Council, and Costco.